"AROUND THE WORLD" AT THE HIPPODROME.

All but the finishing touches have been put on another giant spectacle at the Hippodrome, which is to be called "Around the World."

The title will give scope for all kinds of surprises, but the innovation to be tried this year by the Shuberts is that there will be no divisions of the show. Instead, there will be a continuous entertainment in seventeen scenes which will be a complete history of tourists on a globe encircling tour.

To Arthur Vining will go the credit of having invented and built the entire production. It is being staged by Carroll Fleming, who also wrote the lines. The lyrics and music have been composed by Max Hoffman.

The entire company and ballet of 300 people will be utilized and it is said that 300 animals will be in the panoply. The public will get its first glimpse of the show on Saturday, Sept. 2. This will be the sixth season of the Hippodrome under the Shuberts' management.
